PRIVACY REGISTRATION

The University of Melbourne has a statutory obligation to comply with the Information Privacy Act 2000 and the Health Records Act 2001 in its treatment of personal and health information regarding students.

WHAT WE COLLECT AND WHY

The University collects information about a student for a number of purposes. The main purposes are to enable proper administration of an individual's course of study and to assist the University to organise programs for the health and welfare of students. Information is also collected under Commonwealth or State Government legislation for the purposes of reporting annually to these governments and for the administration of, but not limited to, the following schemes of the Higher Education Contribution Scheme, the Postgraduate Education Loans Scheme, the Bridging Courses for Overseas Trained Professionals Loans Scheme and the Youth Allowance (Austudy and Abstudy). Information may also be collected to facilitate internal planning.

ACCURACY, SECURITY AND STORAGE OF INFORMATION

The University holds personal information on computer and paper based records. It takes all reasonable steps to ensure that the information it holds is accurate and complete and that it is protected from misuse, loss, unauthorised access or disclosure.

Examples of instances when personal information about you may be disclosed are:

- informing Centrelink of your enrolment details if you are in receipt of payments;
- releasing statistical information to the Department of Education, Science and Training;
- releasing statistical information to the Office of Training and Tertiary Education;
- informing the Australian Taxation Office of your taxation liabilities;
- assisting the police with personal information about you if you are alleged to have been involved in a criminal offence;
- releasing your academic details to another tertiary institution or tertiary admission centre if you apply to transfer studies; and
- publishing the names of graduates.

ACCESS TO PERSONAL INFORMATION

Access to and correction of your information are handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 1982. Data obtained via the Enrolment Questionnaire that is reported to the Commonwealth Government can be viewed (and, if necessary, corrected) at: <http://sis.unimelb.edu.au>
